

Colin Bunn

Senior Solution Architect

Key Skills & Capabilities

- Enterprise Architecture (Business, Application, and Information)
- Solution Architecture
- Integration Architecture
- Relationships and Engagement
- Programme/Project Management
- Business and Systems Analysis
- Problem Solving
- IT/Business Consulting & IT Governance
- Information Architecture, IT Strategy and Planning

Qualifications

- DipBA - ICT Business/Systems Analysis (RSA)
- DipPM - IS Project Management (RSA)
- TOGAF 9.1 (FTI)
- Techniques & Deliverables Business Architecture (Inspired)
- Object Oriented Analysis & Design (FTI) & SCJA Bytes Technology

Overview & Experience Summary

Colin is an experienced and seasoned architect and professional consultant with a passion for the design, development, delivery, and implementation of architecture, applications software, and related services. The solutions are driven by their necessity and focus to core business capabilities / modernisations; the key attributes of which are indispensable business and software services, digital transformation, and disruption.

- Colin was the lead principal consultant on an Enterprise Architecture Review for the Environment Protection Authority (EPA) of South Australia. He developed the business, application and data architectures along with the technology reference models to create the organisations digital investment strategy and roadmap.
- Colin is the Program Architect for the South Australian Police Service; engaged to provide solution and business architecture services to their largest ICT program; he is fundamental in developing/contributing to the delivery/program strategies as well as leading the digital transformation and integration adoption work streams for the programs overall target state and delivery.
- Colin was a senior solution architect in the department of infrastructure and transport in Adelaide; engaged to provide solution and business architecture services; he was also fundamental in contributing to the EA practice with the lead architect in progressing and developing the digital twin to support their strategy delivering interactive product life cycle management.
- Colin was the lead architect and played a pivotal role in the design and delivery of a new customer portal for South Australia Water for customers to perform self service functions; a service Layer to decouple the Portal from CRM services; implement new Security Architecture that would include B2C and B2B; delivered with DevOps.
- Colin was the enterprise architect hired to provide EA; solution architecture services; and management consulting for Indigenous Business Australia and the Indigenous Land Corporation. He led their core banking platform replacement programs. their target state.
- Colin was the lead architect on the CRM, digital platform procurement and implementations project across the loans and financial service businesses for a banking institution in South Africa.