

Paul Crosby

Principal Architect

Key Skills & Capabilities

- Enterprise Architecture
- Business Agility
- Human-centered design
- Customer & Employee Experience (CX/EX)
- Strategic Planning
- Enterprise Coaching
- Commercial Acumen
- Creativity & Problem Solving
- Simplifying Technical Concepts

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Science (Hons) in Computing for Business, University of Northumbria
- Professional Agile Leadership (PAL I)
- Professional Scrum Master (PSM I)
- TOGAF 9.2 Certification

Overview & Experience Summary

Paul is an experienced Enterprise Architect, Technologist and Agile Coach with a wide range of experience across small, mid-size and large enterprises. Paul has worked within a broad range of industries including Retail, Finance, Logistics, Energy, Agriculture, Healthcare, and Professional Services.

- Super SA - Assisted with the review and uplift of existing Enterprise Architecture artifacts.
- Super SA - Worked with the team to develop a conceptual solution design to augment the existing Super and Pension Registry systems.
- SATC - developed a Digital Strategy & Roadmap to enable the SATC to uplift both their internal and external operations.
- Resthaven - worked with the team to develop a Business Capability Model and current state application architecture. Developed a set of integration architectures showing both the technical and business perspectives.
- BAE – Developing the foundations for an Enterprise Architecture practice, including a business focused metamodel, and a series of Architecture views to provide insight.
- SACE - assisted with the architecture for a cloud migration, moving from self-managed physical infrastructure to cloud services.
- Flinders Port Holdings: Lead Architect on the development of an IT strategy and 5-year strategic roadmap to digitally transform FPH's South Australian seaports.
- Aboitiz Equity Ventures: Lead Architect on the development of business architecture and business intent for a group wide Digital Transformation project
- Flinders Port Holdings: Principal Architect supporting the planning and execution of an enterprise-wide Digital Transformation
- Assistance with the strategic planning of core internal capabilities and systems including Workforce Management, Terminal Operations and Logistics
- Development of a Common Data Model and data strategy including required artefacts, personnel and technologies such as Data Warehousing, Data Lakes, Blockchain and Business Intelligence
- Assisted with the establishment of the internal Transformation Office including the development of a resource plan proposing required internal and external resources, key strategic partners, and assistance with recruitment