

Nick Paterakis

Principal Consultant – Architecture Services

Key Skills & Capabilities

- Enterprise Architecture
- Solution Architecture
- Project Management
- Test Management
- Release Management
- Lifecycle Management Compliance
- Strategy and Governance
- Business Transformation
- Cyber and Security maturity assessment
- Digital Design Sustainability
- Business & Capability Design
- Information Risk and Data Protections

Qualifications

- Digital Electronics Engineer & Service Engineer
- DDLS ITIL Foundation
- DDLS TOGAF Foundation

Overview & Experience Summary

Nick Paterakis is an experienced strategic advisor with experience across Enterprise Architecture, governance, strategy and sustainable lifecycle managed solution pathways, digital user centric experiences and practice-oriented principles consult to clients. He has extensive experience, across a diverse range of industries, such as across Education, Engineering, Film and Arts, Finance, Health, Defence, State and Federal Government, Private Health Insurance, Telecommunications and Transport.

Nick is experienced in the delivery of enterprise wide, strategically sustainable technology and process business-centric outcomes. He has executed pragmatic technical leadership and capability insights across a diverse stakeholder group to design and deliver optimum IT operating models, innovative business-centric solutions with a high degree of adaptability across varying levels of project complexity, and market dimensions.

- In areas of finance and engineering, Nick was instrumental in the delivery and establishment of Enterprise Architecture Governance, capability modelling and asset health/risk assessments, with a core objective of enabling end-to-end IT delivery of solutions underpinned with disciplines to protect organizational IP, brand and information utilization inside and outside the core business.
- In defense Nick contributed experience across a protected supply chain domestically and globally to align business-centric capability, technology adoption, process uplift and compliance with regulatory targets to protect assets.
- Policy and Procedure in Enterprise Architecture governance, design principals and design practice artefacts
- Migration and uplift of Talent & Recruitment Management, ERP/HR System and payroll Transition design
- Product and vendor evaluations, RFX market assessments and strategic capability roadmap planning/design
- Identify data handling risks, short term challenges and long-term aspirations for Data Classification and Security profiling
- Establish Data Lineage and Business linked Persona Mapping and capability standards
- Nick has large scale strategic infrastructure experience, working across Transport Health and Education to design and implement new builds across facility, commuter Realtime and modality services and holistically customer journey and impact-based outcomes that deliver sustainable strategic objectives, including the blueprint for major hospital reconstruction and refurbishment capabilities.